The Sanctuary Candle this week burns for the special intentions of Msgr. Marucci, in appreciation for his years of Pastoral Leadership.

THRIFTWAY SHOPPERS ...

Don’t forget to bring in your Thriftway receipts. Receipts are collected, tallied and returned to Thriftway. In exchange, Thriftway reviews the tapes for accuracy and returns a percentage of the total to the Parish. Please note that tapes cannot be accepted that are dated beyond six months. The Women’s Club also collects BLUE register tapes from the Audubon and Haddonfield Acme Markets. All tapes can be placed in the wooden boxes in the back of the church marked Thriftway and Acme Tapes.

WORD OF LIFE...

“When the family is weakened, it is inevitably children who suffer. If the dignity of women and mothers is not protected, it is the children who are affected most.”

Pope Benedict XVI, “Message for the Celebration of the World Day of Peace”, January 1, 2009.

PRAYER FOR WORLD PEACE...

Almighty God, Creator of all things, we place our request for world peace into your hands. Continue to be our refuge and our strength as we undertake this challenge. Bless with Your divine protection our servicemen and women. Let their faith and trust in You never weaken. Bring them safely home to their loved ones. Let Your heavenly wisdom direct our world leaders to seek peace. Through their actions, may harmony and justice be secured. Please remember Jack Carr, William P. Fallon Joseph R. Malandro, David Marnell, and Jennifer Vollmer in your prayers.

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY SERIES...

If interested please call Sr. Jeanne at 858-1313.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION...

Stewards less pompous, More Giving

"Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, [love] is not pompous, it is not inflated."

(1 Corinthians 13:4)

Are you jealous? Do you focus more on the things that other people have than on the gifts that God has given you? Are you pompous? Do you seek to acquire more possessions to impress others? At times we are all guilty of these human weaknesses. Yet as stewards we are called to love God above all other things – striving always to be less jealous, less pompous and more giving.

PARENTING POINTERS...

How do you connect as a family? 42% of parents with children ages 7 to 17 call their sons and daughters once a day, or more, via cell phone. (Pew Internet & American Life Project) Perhaps your children are too young for cell phones, but if they do have one what rules do you have for use? The ways families connect may change, but the need to connect virtually, and physically, remain constant.

YOUTH GROUP NEWS...

The Junior Youth Group will be having a meeting on Sunday, January 31st from 6:00 to 7:30 PM in the Parish Memorial Hall. Come join us as we bake cookies to help raise money for some upcoming events. Service hours can be earned for this project.

PARTNERS WITH THE POOR...

Partners with the Poor are seeking a group of volunteers - men and women - to assist with dinner service at the Cathedral Kitchen in Camden for Monday, February 1. We will meet/leave at 3:20 from the Church parking lot (Rectorly-side) and return approximately two hours later. Please call Mary at 609-238-1677 to volunteer for either date.

SNOW REMOVAL ...

During the recent severe snow storm in December, snow removal was non-stop throughout the weekend of December 19th and 20th. The cost of snow removal was $3,465.00. WOW! Due to these high costs, we will be taking up a Second Collection this weekend, January 30-31st to help defray the cost of this bill. Please be as generous as possible.

CALENDAR RAFFLE...

Tickets sold after all Masses.

HELPING HANDS...

Please call Sally Chew (795-5049) if you need assistance.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT...

Serving is Essential – Our world has become a large, impersonal, busy institution. We are alienated from each other. Although crowded, we are lonely. Distant. Pushed together but uninvolved. No longer do most neighbors visit across the backyard fence. The well-manicured front lawn is the modern moat that keeps barbarians at bay. Hoarding and flaunting have replaced sharing and caring. It's like we are occupying common space but have no common interests, as if we're on an elevator with rules like: "No talking, smiling, or eye contact allowed without written consent of the management."

Painful though it may be for us to admit it here in this great land of America, we're losing touch with one another. The motivation to help, to encourage, yes, to serve our fellow-man is waning...And yet, it is these things that form the essentials of a happy and fulfilled life.

THANK YOUs...

Dear Prayer Shawl Ministry,
Thank you for the beautiful Prayer Shawl. It brings me such comfort and warmth not only from your hands but God hands as well.
Thanks again, Elaine Celenza

Dear Msgr. Marucci,

Your thoughtfulness at the holidays was greatly appreciated with the pretty poinsettia plant you sent me. It looks so nice on my table.

I thank you again and wish you a Healthy and Happy New Year.

Fondly, June Simon

Many thanks to St. Vincent's "Helping Hands." When I was in dire need of transportation to Dr.'s appointment, Judy Williams was more than a "helping hand." Through her, I met Mike Cashore & Bob Perodeau. They came to my rescue and I can never thank them enough. It was more than a "simple act of kindness." I'll never forget what they did for me.

Love & Prayers, Jean Al-Greene

Dear Msgr. Marucci & Sr. Jeanne,

May the Lord give you Peace!

Thank you so very much for the donation of $500 for St. Elizabeth Food Pantry. The generosity of your parishioners, especially during these economic times, is to be commended, and will bring God's blessings upon them, I am sure.

We are able to purchase food at a greatly reduced rate from the Community Pantry (affiliated with Second Harvest) in Gallup. Purchases are made from local grocery stores during sales and on senior discount days. (Fortunately a number of us on the staff are seniors!)

Over the Christmas season we were able to distribute over 100 food boxes, as well as Christmas gifts to 75 households, due to generous benefactors like your St. Vincent Pallotti parishioners.

On a personal note, I was delighted to receive this donation from St. Vincent Pallotti Church which holds some happy memories for me. I remember first attending Mass there when Msgr. Poyatt was assigned. Also, teacher meetings were held sometimes at Paul VI High School and then were concluded with Mass in St. Vincent Pallotti Church. One time stands out in my mind – Bishop Guilfoyle was presiding and a pep rally was happening on the football field. Joyful shouts and cheers really did drown out our attempts to sing the Lord's praises!

Sincerely, Carole Ann Hoppe, OSF

Dear Msgr. Marucci and Parishioners of St. Vincent Pallotti,

I am writing to thank you for donation of $2,720.00 in gift cards to St. Anthony of Padua Church for our Christmas Drive and many canned goods for our food pantry. This year we were able to provide 45 families with food baskets that included turkeys and 81 families (that's 219 children) were able to receive presents. We are blessed by your contribution and others like it that enable us to continue to reach out and be the arms and hands of Christ!

Each year we wonder how we will be able to meet the ever growing needs in our community. Yet, year after year God provides by sending people like you to us so that we can show God's love to others. THANK YOU for your generosity!

Sincerely, Lori Springer, M.S.W., Development Director
